Brooklyns Lose to Cincinnati, Louisvilles Surprise the Philadelphias, and the Fittsburghs, who Treaseed the Hos-tons, Again in First Place Other Games

At the close of the fifth inning of yesterday's game at Cleveland there was every indication that the New Yorks would win, but after Young had given way to Wallace, Tebeau's men got at Clarke and pounded out a victory. The Brook-lyns are not doing any too well in the West. Yesterday, with Kennedy in the box, the Cinelimatis made short work of Foutz's men. There were two big surprises, the most notable one being the crushing defeat of the Philadelphias at Louisville, and the other was the trouncing administered to the Bostons by the Pittsburghs. The result of the latter two games enabled the Pirates to resume the lead again. After an uphill fight the Washingtons tied the St. Louis team, but the home players scored the winning run in the last inning. The Chicagos tied the Baltimores in the ninth inning, but after the tenth inning had been played the game was called on account of darkness. The his grays up against the Spiders to-day, and, although they lost, they showed up remarkably well. There was a general impression current in this city that the Clevelands would have so easy a time that the game would be uninterest-ing, and only about 800 spectators went out to see it. The game started in one sided, for the visitors played all around the Spiders for five innings, and practically had the game won. Then they throw it away. Clarke was in the Then they threw it away. Clarke was in the box, and he mowed down the heavy bitting spiders in one, two, three order for five innings. The New Yorks were handy with the stick and, even if they did not win the game they have the satisfaction of having knocked the great Cy Young out of the box, getting ten well-placed hits off him in four and one-half innings. Clarke weakened in the sixth, and the Spiders got five hits. These, with an error by Fuller, let in five runs, and Cleveland had the lead. This lead was tied by Van Haltren in the New Yorks' half of that inning, but after this the Clevelands kept ahead and won. The score:

CLEVELAND, 10; NEW YORK, 7. CLEVELAND, May 14.-Manager Irwin stacked

CINCINNATI, 13: BROOKLYN, 2.

CINCINNATI, May 14.—There was a time when the knees of the Reds rattled like castanets at the mention of the name of Konnedy. The erstwhile terror didn't have a ball in his repertoire that seemed to worry his Red victims on this occasion, and the Brooklyns received a regular Kentucky encore. The game was in runaway style. When the tourists arrived from Bourbondom at noon it was rainy, but the sun soon shone, and a few less than 2,000 turned out to greet the visitors. Capt. Griffin was ill, and in consequence Manager Foutz went into the game himself, going into right, where he was kept busy chasing the grounders that were knocked that way. Those Reds piled up runs with a frequency that was alarming, while Brooklyn ncy that was alarming, while Brooklyn and out gross eggs enough to fill a basket.

M'DONALD'S TWO-YEAR-OLD WINS THE BOUQUET STAKES.

I'od Blonne Caught Lithos on the Post and Won Through Supertor Jockeyship-Rusaway, Paladia, Bonsparte, Petrel, and Decrslayer the Other Winners. John E. McDonald's chestnut colt Albanian, by Tristan out of Furlavo, won the Bouquet Stakes at Morris Park yesterday afternoo thanks to the splendid riding of Tod Sioans, the light-weight jockey, who outgeneralled young Hirsch on the Morris colt Lithes, and gained the prize by the shortest of heads. Lithos would have won with the riders reversed, but he will surely beat Albanian again, as it was the winner's first race, while Lithes is quite a campaigner, having participated in a number of races at Washington. Kalser Ludwig, the secend choice, owned by David Gideon, was left at the post. The attendance was in the neighborhood of 3,000 persons,

There were nine candidates for the Bouquet stakes, with Prompt and Lithos representing the Morris Bros.; Spanker, the Messrs. Keene; Albanian, John E. McDonald; Nay Nay, the Brookdale Stables: Robert Bonner, John E. Madden; Saurian, W. A. Chanler; Kalser Ludwir. David Gideon, and Talisman, Charles Littlefield, Jr. Lithos and Albanian of the colts and Nay Nay of the fillies were the most likely ooking of the field, the latter having that neat, businesslike look so attractive to turf men. Prompt was favorite at 8 to 5, with Kaiser Ludwig second choice at 4 to 1 Lithos and Albanian were next in demand at 5 to 1. Tallsman and Robert Bonner being the outsiders at 20 to 1. There was long delay at the post before Flynn threw his flag. Kalser Ludwig had behaved very badly, and he was left at the post. The Morris pair went to the front at once and scampered lown the incline. Talisman and Saurian heading the ruck. In the dip it was almost any odds that Prompt and Lithos would have the race to themselves, but on rising the hill Sloane closed very fast with Albanian, the chestnut colt answering every call that was being made upon him. Prompt swerved when O'Lears tried to ride him with the whip, and there was only Lithos to beat. Hirsch seemed to become rattled when Albanian came at him in the last fifty yards. This was a sig-nal for Sloans to redouble his exertions, and he fairly lifted Albanian home first by a short head. Prompt was a poor third, with Nay Nay fourth. The winner is a very handsome colt. He was bred by L. O. Appleby at Stone Brook jeach. Prompt was a poor third, with Nay Nay for the control of the prompt was a poor third, with Nay Nay of central. One of those real good things which materialize now and then was brought to a successful climax in the fifth race, a selling affair for two-year-olds, at half a mile. Joe Hayman was favorite on the strength of victories at Bennings and Aqueduct, but the real money went on Andrew Jackson Joyner's Petrel, a spirited-looking bay cot by The Hard, out of White Squall. Silver Brook was off in front and led down the hill with Suspicion. The Manxman heading the ruck. Petrel did not show prominently until a furiong from home; thea Joe Hill jumped him out of the bunch. He flew to the front, and in a hundred yards had his opponents soundly beaten. Joyner, hat in hand, cheered him home as only a North Carolinian can cheer, and an admirer of Hill's came in strong with the refrain. "Oh, you, Joe Hill." Suspicion was an easy second and The Manxman third.

There were only two starters for the concluding event of the day, Deerslayer and Unity II. Deerslayer was of course a prohibitive favorite, and he could have won by a hundred yards. The three-year-old carried him out at the first turn, the could have won by a work to keep from going to the outside fence.
